

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 15-12582

CONSENT DECREE

I. Background

1. This Consent Decree resolves a civil action brought by Plaintiff United States against Defendant, the University of Michigan, to enforce the provisions of Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101, et seq., and its implementing regulation, 29 C.F.R. §§ 1630 et seq.
2. In its Complaint, the United States alleges that Defendant discriminated against Allissa Weber in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12112 and 29 C.F.R. §§ 1630.2, 1630.4 and 1630.9, by failing to provide her with a reassignment as a reasonable accommodation when she could no longer perform her job because of a back disability; and discriminated against other similarly situated employees. The Complaint also alleges that the Defendant’s policy that employees with disabilities must be best qualified for a vacant position when reassignment is a necessary accommodation constitutes a pattern or practice of discrimination on the basis of disability, in violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 12112(a), (b)(5)(A) and § 12117(a).
3. This matter was initiated by a charge filed by Ms. Weber (Charge No. 471-2010-02601) with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”). The EEOC investigated the charge and found reasonable cause to believe that the allegations of discrimination on the basis of disability were true. After the EEOC’s attempts at conciliation failed, the EEOC referred the charge to the United States Department of Justice (“the Department”).

4. The Defendant has denied, defended, and disputed the allegations and claims contained in EEOC Charge No. 471-2010-02601 and this action.
5. The United States and Defendant (collectively “the parties”) agree that it is in the parties’ best interests, and the United States believes that it is in the public interest, to resolve this lawsuit on mutually agreeable terms without further litigation. Accordingly, the parties agree to the entry of this Consent Decree without trial or further adjudication of any issues of fact or law raised in the United States’ Complaint.

Accordingly, the parties hereby AGREE and the Court expressly APPROVES, ENTERS, AND ORDERS THE FOLLOWING:

II. Jurisdiction and Venue

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f), 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-6, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345. The parties agree that venue is appropriate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.
7. The United States has authority to initiate legal proceedings to enforce Title I of the ADA through litigation. 42 U.S.C. § 12117(a).
8. Defendant is a person within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 12111(7) and 42 U.S.C. § 2000e(a), an employer within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. §§ 12111(5), and a covered entity within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 12111(2) and 29 C.F.R. § 1630.2.

III. Injunctive Relief

9. Defendant, by and through its officials, agents, employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant in the performance of employment or personnel functions, shall not continue its practice that employees with disabilities must be the best qualified applicant for a vacant position when reassignment is a necessary accommodation and Defendant is unable to demonstrate undue hardship.
10. Within ninety (90) days of entry of this Decree, Defendant shall modify any and all policies related to transfers and reassignments as reasonable accommodations to explicitly and prominently state that the “best qualified” standard is not applicable to transfers/ reassignments as reasonable accommodations for employees with disabilities, and that Defendant's Standard Practice Guide 201.84 governs transfers/ reassignments as reasonable accommodations for employees with disabilities. The revised policies shall be consistent with the provisions of the EEOC Enforcement Guidance: Reasonable Accommodation and Undue Hardship Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (<http://www.eeoc.gov/policy/docs/accommodation.html#reassignment>), related to reassignment to a vacant position as a reasonable accommodation, including but not limited to the following provisions:

- a. An employer must reassign an employee who, because of a disability, can no longer perform the essential functions of his/her current position, with or without reasonable accommodation, to a vacant position that is equivalent in terms of pay, status, or other relevant factors (e.g., benefits, geographical location) if the employee is qualified for the position.
 - b. If there is no vacant equivalent position, the employer must reassign the employee to a vacant lower level position for which the individual is qualified.
 - c. Assuming there is more than one vacancy for which the employee is qualified, the employer must place the individual in the position that comes closest to the employee's current position in terms of pay, status, etc. If it is unclear which position comes closest, the employer should consult with the employee about his/her preference before determining the position to which the employee will be reassigned.
11. Within ninety (90) days of entry of this Decree, Defendant shall provide its revised policies required under paragraph 10 above to the United States. The United States may provide changes to these policies and the parties agree to discuss in good faith the recommended changes suggested by the United States and Defendant shall adopt any changes to the policies and procedures necessary to reflect the law's requirements.

Section IX of Defendant's Standard Practice Guide (SPG) 201.84 provides that: "In some cases, transfer of an employee with a disability into a vacant position for which he/she is qualified will constitute a reasonable accommodation. Reassignment may be made to a vacant position which is the same or lower pay grade as the position currently held by the employee.

Whenever reassignment to a vacant position is the only way in which an employee with a disability can be reasonably accommodated, the employee with a disability will be given priority for placement into that vacant position.” (emphasis added). Within ninety (90) days of entry of this Decree, Defendant shall modify any practices to ensure that SPG 201.84 and Defendant’s revised policies under paragraph 10 will be followed.

12. Within one hundred fifty (150) days of entry of this Decree, Defendant shall disseminate a copy of its modified policies and practices related to transfers and reassignments as reasonable accommodations to all employees. Throughout the term of this Decree, Defendant will disseminate these policies and practices to all new employees within thirty (30) days of their hire. Defendant may meet this obligation by posting copies of its modified policies and practices on its human resources website, publicizing the new policy in the University Record, and including the policy in new employee orientation.
13. Within one hundred fifty (150) days of entry of this Decree Defendant will provide to the Department of Justice a copy of all the policies referenced in paragraph 12 above, and a declaration from a responsible Defendant official verifying that they have been disseminated to all employees and will be disseminated to all new employees within thirty (30) days of their hire.
14. Defendant shall provide training on all aspects of Title I of the ADA (“ADA Training”) as follows:
 - a. Defendant shall provide mandatory training to all current Human Resources employees, and Supervisory employees (as defined by the current University “Deans, Directors, Department Heads” code (3D list)) within one hundred fifty (150) days of the effective date of this Decree. See, e.g.; <http://www.eeoc.gov/policy/docs/accommodation.html>; and http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/statutes/adaaa_notice.cfm. Defendant may meet this training obligation through the use of on-line training.
 - b. ADA Training shall also be provided to new Supervisory employees and Human Resources employees, whether by hire or promotion after the entry of this Decree, within thirty (30) days of the start of their duties.

- c. Following the initial mandatory training, Defendant shall annually send refresher ADA training materials to all Supervisory employees and maintain the training materials on its website for the term of this Decree. All Human Resources employees, however, shall receive mandatory annual training for the duration of this Decree.

Defendant shall provide the United States with a copy of the proposed training and will discuss in good faith any changes proposed by the United States and will adopt any such changes necessary to comply with the ADA. Defendant shall maintain records of completion of training reflecting the date of the trainings and the names of all employees who attend the training, along with their job titles.

Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this Decree, Defendant shall submit to the Department for approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, the identity of the trainer it seeks to use, including the individual's Curriculum Vitae. The trainer shall be knowledgeable about Title I of the ADA.

15. Six (6) months after the effective date of this Decree, and every six (6) months thereafter during the term of this Decree, the Defendant shall provide a written report ("Report") to the Department regarding its efforts to comply with this Decree. The Report shall include, for the preceding six-month period:
 - a. A specific acknowledgment that the Defendant has, for the instant reporting period, complied with the requirements of the Decree, including the training requirements, specified in paragraphs 9 –14 above;
 - b. All copies of the on-line training records maintained for the trainings described in paragraph 14 above; and
 - c. Notification regarding any lawsuit, written complaint, charge, or grievance alleging that the Defendant has failed to accommodate an employee who may need reassignment to a vacant position as described in paragraph 10 of this Decree.

All information provided pursuant to the above reporting requirements under this Decree should be provided to the Department via overnight courier

25. If any term of this Consent Decree is determined by any court to be unenforceable, the other terms of this Consent Decree shall nonetheless remain in full force and effect.
26. The United States may review compliance with this Consent Decree at any time.
